

Survey – Mark each item that is true for you.

One or both of your parents graduated from college.
You ever attended a private school or a summer camp.
As a child, it was expected that you would go to college.
You or your family never had to move due to eviction.
You studied the history of your nationality/culture in school.
You are not regularly viewed with suspicion while shopping.
School/work is on break for your major religious holidays.
You have a United States of America passport.
You have a car and can get to where you want, when you want.
You do not fear for your safety when pulled over by police.
You were told you were smart, beautiful, or able by your parents.
You have close relatives who are doctors, lawyers, or professors.
You do not worry about violent crime in your neighborhood.
You can easily cover an unexpected expense of $1000.
You have (or expect to) inherit money from relatives.
You grew up in a house with more than 50 books.
You regularly took vacations away from home as a child.
You were not told what you could not do based on your race.
You have never skipped a meal because of lack of food/money.
No one in your immediate family has ever served time in prison.
No one in your immediate family has been addicted to drugs.
You have multiple or advanced college degrees
You have running hot and cold water in your house.
You have a government retirement program (Social Security).
Health insurance is available (with subsidies if low income).
You can vote for your elected representatives.
You are free to travel almost anywhere you want.
You had free K to 12 grade education for you and your kids.
Reasonable loans or a credit card account are available to you.
As a worker you have protections and rights.

