War, and the evil it brings with it, shows us our desperate need for righteousness and peace in Christ.

Around dawn on Saturday, Oct. 7, Hamas militants launched a surprise attack on Israel to which she has vigorously responded. Many have been taken hostage, killed, or wounded as the warfare continues to escalate.

And so, we pray...

"Lord God, we pray for peace in Israel, and on all sides of her. We pray for justice and hope for innocent people caught in the crossfire.

We confess that our terribly broken and sin-laden world is in desperate need of your mercy and grace. Today, we recognize again the terrible price paid when mankind pursues life apart from your good and perfect design, purpose, and plan for us revealed in Jesus.

And so, we wait upon you in this hour of need to reveal your love and exalt your holy name during it all. And though the world seems to spin out of control, we know it is not out of your sovereign control and that for all who call upon your name, you are able to rescue out of the conflict and suffering or make a way through it with strength and courage.

Thank you, Lord. We rejoice in all you've done in the past to bring peace and wholeness to broken people. We wait upon you to do it again. "Not to us, Lord, not to us, but to Your name give glory - because of Your mercy, because of Your truth." (Psalm 115:1 NAS) Amen.

"Lord Jesus, help me to touch someone today with Your mercy and generosity of spirit, for Your name's sake. Amen."
